

Transgender Rights and Gym Memberships

There have been reports in the media about women's gyms denying membership and access to transgender people

Under QLD law, this is discrimination, and it is illegal

No business or service can deny service to anyone based on their gender identity

In QLD law, your gender identity includes:

- your personal sense of your body
- medical and surgical changes to your body
- other expressions of your gender, including your name, dress, speech and behaviour.

Transgender people do not have to have legally or medically affirmed their gender to be protected by antidiscrimination laws

Transgender women are not a threat to women's safety. Transgender people are far more likely to be victims of violence than to use violence

If you have been refused gym membership or experienced any other discrimination, contact the LGBTI Legal Service for free legal advice

